9 Julius Bradford, } Case No. 2:20-cv-00871-ART-BNW
 10 Plaintiff,

11

v.

12 Steve Sisolak, et al., } Motion For Extension Of Time
 13 Defendants. } To File An Amended Complaint
                           (Second Request)

14

15 Motion For Extension Of Time To File
 16 An Amended Complaint (2nd Request)

17

18 Comes Now, the Plaintiff, Julius Bradford, appearing in Pro Se, and 19 hereby moves this Honorable Court for a fourteen (14) day extension, up
 20 to and including June 24, 2022, in which to file an amended complaint
 21 as ordered by this Court. ECF No. 49. This is my second request for an
 22 extension of time in regards to this Court's order, and it is not made
 23 for dilatory purposes. ECF Nos. 50, 53.

24 My proposed amended complaint is roughly 85% finished, so
 25 barring any other unforeseeable circumstances, I am confident
 26 that I will have it submitted to this Court within the time requested.

27 The need for the requested extension comes from an unexpected change
 28 in the way an in-person discovery meeting between myself, the State, and my

1 stand-by counsel is scheduled to take place in my state-court capital
2 proceedings (Case No. 09-C250928).

3 1. (The state-court, and the parties, are awaiting the outcome of this
4 meeting to determine the preparation time needed for me so that a date
5 can be set for a jury trial.

6 2. For the last eight months the plan and purpose was for myself
7 and the State to sit next to each with our computers to ascertain what
8 discovery I have not received and/or needs to be provided to me in a more
9 accessible format.<sup>①</sup>

10 3. There have been scheduling conflicts with the State and my stand-by 11 counsel so this meeting has "been in the works" for almost eight months.

12 4. At my last court hearing on May 19, 2022 I found out that the 13 meeting was scheduled for tomorrow June 8, 2022.

14 5. Shortly after, I found out that there was a mishap with the 15 scheduling so there was no provision made for me to have access to 16 my discovery discs/computer setup during the meeting.

17 b. Instead of starting over with having to find a new date/time,
18 I have worked during that time to catalog/index what discovery is on 19 the discs. It has taken up a lot of my time and set me back a
20 little in regards to other litigation.

21 7. Although I did not come anywhere close to finishing cata-
22 loging the discovery documents, I believe there is sufficient time
23 between now and the next status check on June 16, 2022 to finish
24 the bulk of the remaining work on my proposed amended complaint
25 in this case, to have it submitted on or before June 24, 2022.

26 8. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing

27 ① The colloquy between the parties and the court regarding this plan is presumed to 28 be shown in the court minutes for Case No. 09-C250928 for almost every hearing beginning Oct 2021.

1 is true and correct. EXECUTED: 6-7-2022
